POWER COUPLE

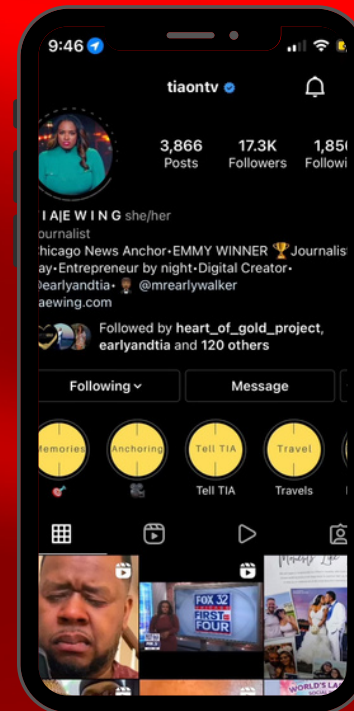

Tia and Early are a match made in heaven as both of them believe strongly in helping and uplifting their communities. Tia Ewing is a journalist & morning news reporter at Fox 32 Chicago, she graces the screen with her outgoing personality Monday-Friday at 5pm, 9pm and 11:30 pm for the Later show with Leon. Inspired by her home city of Chicago, Tia has always loved broadcasting and connecting with people everywhere. Her positive and welcoming energy is so contagious! In 2012 she became known as the “dancing anchor” going viral for her moves while working at a Sacramento station. Tia’s career is extensive from winning an EMMY for amazing news reporting to covering the Cleveland Cavalier’s Championship parade & Cleveland Indian playoffs to always giving back to non-profit organizations and those in need. Her giving heart and sparkling personality is the perfect pairing to Early’s humanitarian lifestyle.

Early Walker a giver himself has always loved helping others in need. CEO of the company “W&W Towing of Cook County” he started his business by himself and created an establishment known for their generosity and support for the less fortunate. A true humanitarian Early gives back any chance he can in multiple ways. He’s provided groceries to those in need, purchased 30,000 bottles of water and personally delivered them to Flint Michigan, given away 250,000 turkeys and gave a sick teenage girl with cancer the prom experience of her life!! His outstanding business was also featured on the A&E network on the show “Hustle & Tow”, giving an inside look at the dangerous conditions of essential workers. Both Tia and Early care deeply about supporting the less fortunate and connecting with individuals everywhere which led them to their beautiful union together.
